A balloon safari launches before dawn from a clearing in the reserve. masai mara luxury tented camp You watch the inflation, climb into a basket with eight to sixteen passengers, and lift off as the sun luxury wildlife safari Masai Mara rises.

Flights last about an hour, drifting low over herds and river lines. Landings are gentle but can be bumpy, and the chase vehicle meets you for a bush breakfast.

It is expensive and weather dependent, with launches cancelled in high wind or rain. Book it for the middle of your stay so a cancellation can be rescheduled. It complements game drives rather than replacing them. Balloon options appear at %LINK%.
