Step-by-Step Guide to Getting a Category B License (Cars)

The Category B license is the most typically in-demand authorization in Belgium. The journey from beginner to certified motorist involves a number of unique stages:

1. Passing the Theoretical Exam

Before getting behind the wheel, candidates need to show their knowledge of the Belgian Highway Code (Code de la Route).

- Format: A computerized multiple-choice test including 50 questions.
- Passing Score: Candidates should score a minimum of 41 out of 50.
- Important Note: Major infractions (serious traffic infractions) result in a reduction of 5 points per mistake, making preparation vital.

2. Selecting a Training Method

As soon as the theoretical test is passed, prospects receive a provisionary driving license (permis de conduire provisoire). Belgium provides 2 main knowing pathways:

- The Free Training Method (With a Guide):
  - Requires a provisional license valid for 36 months.
  - The prospect must drive with at least one supervising adult who fulfills particular legal requirements (e.g., holding a valid license for a minimum of 8 years).
- The Driving School Method:
  - Requires a provisionary license valid for 18 months.
  - The candidate must finish a minimum of 20 hours of practical guideline at a qualified driving school before practicing independently.

3. Passing the Practical Exam

The dry run examines the prospect's ability to drive safely in real-world traffic conditions and execute specific maneuvers.

- Off-Road Maneuvers: Tested either on a personal track or during the preliminary stage, consisting of supporting in a straight line, reversing in a restricted area, and parking.
- On-Road Driving: Evaluating hazard perception, adherence to speed limitations, lane discipline, and interaction with other roadway users.

Exchanging a Foreign License in Belgium

For migrants and worldwide workers who already hold a driving license from another country, the procedure differs considerably from testing from scratch. Instead of buying or retaking exams, lots of people are eligible for a direct exchange.

- EU/EEA Licenses: Licenses released by member states of the European Union or the European Economic Area are usually acknowledged in Belgium till their expiration date. However, voluntary registration with the regional town (commune/ gemeente) is suggested.

- Non-EU Licenses (Reciprocal Agreements): Belgium has bilateral arrangements with specific non-EU nations, allowing holders to exchange their foreign license for a Belgian one without taking useful or theoretical tests.
- Non-Reciprocal Licenses: Individuals from countries without a contract must normally pass both the theoretical and practical tests to acquire a legitimate Belgian authorization.

Documents Required for License Exchange
