Open and Enclosed Auto Transport Options

One of the most important decisions when shipping a vehicle is choosing between open and enclosed transportation. Each option provides different benefits depending on the customer's needs.

Open Vehicle Transport

Open carriers are a popular choice for many vehicle owners because they provide efficient and cost-effective transportation. Vehicles are secured on specialized carriers designed for safe movement.

Enclosed Vehicle Transport

Enclosed carriers provide additional protection by transporting vehicles inside a covered trailer. This option is often preferred for luxury, classic, collectible, or high-value automobiles.

How the Vehicle Shipping Process Works

Understanding the auto transportation process helps customers prepare for a smooth experience. Professional shippers typically follow several important steps to ensure efficient vehicle delivery.

Step 1: Request a Transportation Plan

Customers provide vehicle details, pickup information, delivery location, and preferred scheduling. The shipping company uses this information to create a suitable transportation plan.

Step 2: Prepare the Vehicle

Before shipping, customers should remove personal belongings, check fluid levels, maintain proper tire pressure, and ensure the vehicle is ready for transportation.

Step 3: Vehicle Inspection and Pickup

Professional carriers inspect the vehicle before loading and document its condition. This step helps maintain transparency throughout the shipping process.

Step 4: Transportation and Delivery

The vehicle is transported securely and delivered according to the agreed schedule. Upon arrival, another inspection confirms the vehicle's condition before completion.

Preparing Your Vehicle for Transportation

Proper preparation helps create a smoother shipping experience and reduces potential complications during transportation.

- Remove personal items from the vehicle
- Clean the interior and exterior
- Document existing vehicle conditions
- Check fuel levels
- Disable alarms if necessary
- Secure loose accessories

Following preparation guidelines helps customers and shippers complete the process more efficiently.
