How Do CS2 Cases Work?

At its core, the CS2 case system is a lottery. Cases do not open themselves; players should acquire a specific Case Key (usually priced at £ 2.50 GBP in-game) to unlock a case. Once opened, the game spins through a live roulette of weapon surfaces included because specific collection and awards one item.

The Weekly Drop System

Gamers do not require to invest cash just to get cases. Valve benefits active players through the weekly care plan system:

- Level Up: Upon making enough XP to rank up their profile for the very first time every week, gamers receive a care bundle.
- Selection: Players are triggered to pick two out of 4 available benefits, which typically consist of a mix of weapon skins, graffiti, and most importantly, weapon cases.
- Active vs. Graveyard Drops: Cases typically fall into two categories: the Active Drop Pool (cases currently dropping actively to players) and the Rare/Discontinued Pool (older cases that drop at an extremely low rate of roughly 1%).

Understanding the Odds: What Are the Chances?

Before diving headfirst into opening cases, it is important to understand the mathematics behind them. Valve famously notes the main probabilities for skin wear and rarity tiers.

Rarity Tier Approximate Drop Probability Mil-Spec (Blue) ~ 79.92% Restricted (Purple) ~ 15.98% Classified (Pink) ~ 3.20% Covert (Red) ~ 0.64% Special Item (Knife/ Gloves) ~ 0.26%
