What is the Towers Gambling Game?

Towers is a vertical risk-reward game influenced by classic concepts like Minesweeper and arcade ladder video games. The objective is simple: a gamer starts at the bottom of a grid-based tower and should reach the top by picking squares on each level.

Each successful step up multiplies the player's stake. However, concealed behind one or more squares on each level is a "trap" (often represented as a skull, bomb, or beast). If the player selects a trap, the tower collapses, and the bet is lost. Gamers can pick to "squander" their jackpots at any tier before taking the next action.

Key Game Terminology

- Multiplier: The payment coefficient that increases with every effectively cleared row.
- Difficulty/Grid Size: The configuration of the tower (e.g., a 3x9 grid, a 4x9 grid, or a specialist 2x9 grid).
- RTP (Return to Player): The statistical portion of wagered cash a game returns to players over time.
- Provably Fair: A cryptographic algorithm that permits players to confirm that the outcome of every round was genuinely random and not manipulated by the gambling establishment.
