What is the Limbo Casino Game?

Unlike Crash, where players see a rocket or a line climb up and by hand cash out before it crashes, Limbo is a fixed game. Gamers choose a target multiplier before the round begins. The game then creates a random multiplier. If the generated multiplier is equivalent to or greater than the player's target, the bet wins. If it falls below the target, the bet loses.

How a Round Works:

1. Place a Bet: The gamer picks just how much money they want to bet.
2. Set a Target Multiplier: The player selects their desired payout (e.g., 2x, 10x, 100x, or perhaps 1,000,000 x).
3. Roll/Spin: The gamer hits the bet button.
4. The Result: The system generates a random number. The UI shows whether the target was satisfied and determines the payment quickly.

Comprehending the Mathematics and RTP

To an observer, Limbo may appear like pure uncertainty, however it is deeply rooted in possibility. Many reliable online casinos provide Limbo with a really high Return to Player (RTP)-- usually around 99%. This indicates your house edge is a razor-thin 1%.

The mathematical relationship in Limbo is inversely proportional: The greater your target multiplier, the lower your win probability. Conversely, the lower your target, the greater your opportunities of winning.

Limbo Probability Breakdown

To provide players a clearer photo of how danger and benefit scale in Limbo, consider the following analytical breakdown (presuming a requirement 1% home edge):

Target Multiplier Win Probability (%) Example Potential Payout on a £ 10 Bet 1.01 x 98.01% £ 10.10 2.00 x 49.50%
£ 20.00 5.00 x 19.80% £ 50.00 10.00 x 9.90% £ 100.00 50.00 x 1.98% £ 500.00 100.00 x 0.99% £ 1,000.00
1,000.00 x 0.099% £ 10,000.00
