

Mediation and Parenting Plans:

Miami courts often encourage parents to reach a mutual agreement through mediation. A parenting plan is a crucial component of this process, outlining the responsibilities and time-sharing arrangements for each parent. If parents can agree on a plan, it is more likely to be approved by the court.

Relocation:

If a custodial parent wishes to relocate with the child, certain legal procedures must be followed. The non-relocating parent may have the right to contest the move, and the court will consider factors such as the reason for the move and its potential impact on the child.
