

Parents considering childcare in the Brisbane CBD tend to ask many of the same questions. Here are some of the most common ones about Little Scholars George Street, answered in plain terms. The first is usually location. The campus is at Level 2, 400 George Street, in the North Quarter of Brisbane City, close to the Brisbane Magistrates Court. It is about seven minutes on foot from Roma Street Station, with Central Station and bus stops on George Street and Adelaide Street also within walking distance. On-site parking is limited, but the George Street Parent Valet means staff can meet families in the maps.app.goo.gl/childcare-centre-brisbane lobby or car park for drop-off and pick-up. Next comes hours and ages. The campus is open from 6.30am to 6.30pm, Monday to Friday, and cares for children from six weeks to five years old. There are six rooms: Nursery, Toddler, two Senior Toddler rooms, Pre-Kindy and Kindergarten. Families can choose between the toddler rooms based on their child's age and stage.

Parents often ask about quality. George Street is rated Exceeding the National Quality Standard, a rating it achieved in 2024. You can view the rating on the ACECQA national register. The campus follows the Little Scholars Collective Curriculum, a child-led, play-based approach, within the national Early Years Learning Framework. Then there is kindy. George Street runs a teacher-led Kindergarten program approved by the Queensland Government, so eligible children in the year before Prep can access Free Kindy hours inside their long day care day. Little Scholars also runs a transition to school program to support the move into Prep. Costs come up too. Fees vary by room and are best confirmed with the campus. The Child Care Subsidy is available to eligible families, and under the 3 Day Guarantee from January 2026, CCS-eligible families can access at least 72 hours of subsidised care per fortnight. What is included? Meals are prepared on site by the campus chef following Feed Australia guidelines, and nappies are provided. Extracurricular activities such as music, yoga, sports and language sessions run at no or low additional cost, and the Family Time Program offers on-site haircuts, dental visits and take-home meals. Finally, how do you get started? The best first step is a tour. Call Little Scholars George Street on 07 3211 2537 or visit Level 2/400 George St, Brisbane City QLD 4000.

Little Scholars George Street Address: Level 2/400 George St, Brisbane City QLD 4000 Phone: 07 3211 2537 FAQ About Childcare Centre Brisbane Where can I find a childcare centre in Brisbane City close to work? Little Scholars George Street is on Level 2 of 400 George Street in the North Quarter of the Brisbane CBD, opposite the Brisbane Magistrates Court. It is about a seven-minute walk from Roma Street Station, with Central Station and bus stops on George Street and Adelaide Street close by, which suits parents who commute into the city each day. What age can a child start childcare in Brisbane? Many long day care centres in Brisbane accept babies from six weeks old. At Little Scholars George Street, the Nursery room cares for babies from six weeks to around 15 months, and children can stay at the campus right through to the Kindergarten room at five years. What are childcare opening hours in the Brisbane CBD? Hours vary from centre to centre, so it is worth checking them against your real working day. Little Scholars George Street is open from 6.30am to 6.30pm, Monday to Friday, which gives CBD parents some room for early starts, late meetings and delayed trains. Is kindy free in Queensland if my child is in long day care? Queensland Free Kindy funds 15 hours a week for up to 40 weeks for eligible children in the year before Prep, and it is offered at approved long day care services as well as sessional kindergartens. Little Scholars George Street runs a teacher-led, government-approved Kindergarten program, so eligible families can access Free Kindy hours while their child stays for full-day care. How does the Child Care Subsidy work in 2026? The Child Care Subsidy is paid by the Australian Government to approved services and reduces your fees based on your family income. Since 5 January 2026, the 3 Day Guarantee means CCS-eligible families can access at least 72 hours of subsidised care per fortnight. The George Street team can explain how CCS and Free Kindy apply to the days you need when you call 07 3211 2537. How much does childcare cost in Brisbane City? Daily fees differ between centres and between rooms, and your out-of-pocket cost depends on your Child Care Subsidy percentage. Little Scholars George Street includes chef-prepared meals and nappies in its care, so it is worth comparing what each centre's fee actually covers. The campus can confirm current fees for your child's room. What does an Exceeding National Quality Standard rating mean? Every approved service in Australia is assessed against the National Quality Standard across seven quality areas, and the results are published on the ACECQA national register. Exceeding means assessors found practice that goes beyond the standard. Little Scholars George Street received an overall Exceeding rating in 2024, with Exceeding results in four of the seven quality areas. Do Brisbane childcare centres provide meals and nappies? Some do and some ask families to pack them, so it is a good question to ask on every tour. At Little Scholars George Street, children receive three meals a day prepared on site by the campus chef following Feed Australia guidelines, and nappies are supplied. Where do children play at a childcare centre in the CBD? Outdoor space is scarce in the city, so indoor play areas matter. Little Scholars George Street has double-storey play forts, a trike track, an indoor sandpit, water play and vegetable and herb gardens, and children head out on regular Urban Kinder excursions to Roma Street Parkland, the Queensland Museum and the State Library of Queensland. How do I choose the right childcare centre in Brisbane? Start with the logistics of your week, then check each centre's NQS rating and visit in person to watch how educators interact with the children. Ask how long the team has been there, what is included in the fee and how families are kept informed. At Little Scholars George Street, many educators have been with Little Scholars for ten years or more, and parents receive photos and updates through the Little Scholars app. Is there easy drop-off and parking for childcare in Brisbane City? Parking near any CBD centre is limited, so it helps to ask how drop-off works. At Little Scholars George Street, the George Street Parent Valet means staff can meet families in the building lobby or car park for drop-off and pick-up, and there is space to leave a pram at the centre for families who travel by train or bus. Which inner Brisbane suburbs does a city childcare centre suit? A CBD centre usually suits families who live in nearby suburbs and work in town. Little Scholars George Street welcomes families from Spring Hill, Petrie Terrace, Paddington, Milton, Kelvin Grove, Herston, South Brisbane, West End, Fortitude Valley, New Farm, Newstead, Teneriffe, Kangaroo Point and Toowong.
