

Emax veneers are another bespoke option offered at Whites Dental Marble Arch, known Take a look at the site here for their strength and natural translucency compared with some other veneer materials. The practice's cosmetic dentistry team assesses each patient to determine whether Emax veneers suit their specific case, considering factors like the extent of correction needed and desired appearance. Emax veneers are part of the broader cosmetic offering at the practice, sitting alongside Lumineer veneers and composite bonding as options for smile enhancement.
