Couples in Buchanan often look south toward Roanoke when they start wedding planning, but some of the best options are much closer to home. Bailey Wick Farm Wedding & Event Venue is in Fincastle, the historic county seat of Botetourt County, which means Buchanan families can celebrate on a working farm without leaving the county.

Buchanan sits along the James River, and many people there already have a deep connection to the rural landscape of Botetourt. Bailey Wick Farm leans into that setting with a rustic barn, a pavilion, open fields and wide views of the Blue Ridge Mountains. It is the kind of place where a wedding feels rooted in the region rather than dropped into a generic event hall.

The barn itself is spacious and comfortable. The venue notes 6,480 square feet of space, heating and air conditioning, a kitchen area and restrooms equipped with televisions and Wi-Fi. A gas log fireplace and an antler chandelier give the interior its character, and the two dressing rooms keep the bride's side and groom's side organized before the ceremony.
