Counter-Strike 2 (CS2) has revived the precious skin economy that made its predecessor a cultural phenomenon. Among the thousands of cosmetic items, a little subset stands out for their scarcity, aesthetics, and market price-- csgo cases CS2 unusual skins. In this post, we'll break down what makes a skin "unusual," take a look at the rarity tier system, highlight the most sought after antiques, and provide useful advice for collectors and financiers alike.

What Defines a "Rare" Skin?

In CS2, "unusual" does not describe a single classification. Rather, rarity is a combination of a number of qualities:

1. Rarity Tier-- The main drop-rate classification appointed by Valve (e.g., Mil-Spec, Restricted, Classified, Covert, Rare Special Item).
2. Float Value-- The amount of wear (from 0.00 to 1.00). Lower float numbers typically indicate a cleaner appearance and greater desirability.
3. StatTrak™-- A special milestone that tracks eliminates. StatTrak variations of particular skins command a premium.
4. Age & Availability-- Skins that have not been available for purchase for years, or those that were removed from the video game's loot tables, become significantly limited. Aesthetic Demand-- Unique finishes, lively colors, or thematic ties to major events can drive demand beyond what the base rarity tier would recommend. Rarity Tier Overview Below is a concise table of the basic rarity tiers
