What is Towers Gambling?

Towers gambling is a vertical-scrolling, multiplier-based game motivated by the classic "minesweeper" principle. Gamers exist with a grid configured like a tower, generally including multiple rows and columns.

The goal is simple: begin at the bottom row and select one tile. If the tile is safe, the player advances to the next row, and their multiplier boosts. If the player strikes a hidden challenge (frequently themed as a trap, bomb, or beast), they lose their bet and the game ends. Players can choose to squander their accumulated earnings at the end of any effective row without climbing greater.

Typical Grid Configurations

- Easy Mode: Fewer columns per row, lower multipliers, higher survival rate.
- Medium Mode: Balanced danger and reward, typically a 3x3 or 4x4 grid layout.
- Hard Mode: Many columns, single safe tiles, using enormous multipliers for those who arrive.
