

Oilfield Truck and Pickup Collisions in the Permian Basin Before sunrise on SH 158, a lot of the headlights coming toward you belong to water haulers, frac sand trucks and white company pickups heading out to the field. More of them roll through east Midland toward Midland Industrial Park. That's daily life in the Permian Basin. Oil and gas work keeps the local economy running, and it also puts heavy traffic on two-lane highways that carry far more trucks than they used to. Crashes with oilfield vehicles tend to share a few causes. Drivers work long shifts, and fatigue slows reaction time. Two-lane rural roads like SH 158 and SH 349, the Rankin Highway heading south and the Lamesa Highway heading north, invite risky passing. Loaded trucks need more room to stop. Spring dust storms and blowing sand can cut visibility to almost nothing, and many rural stretches have no lighting at night. Put a tired driver on a flat, straight road in the dark, and a small mistake can become a head-on collision. These cases differ from a typical fender bender because the driver usually isn't the only one who may be responsible. When someone is driving for work, the company that employs them may share liability for what happened. Vehicle owners and contractors on the job may also be involved. Figuring out who was on the clock, who owned the truck, and who set the schedule takes real investigation. A Midland car accident lawyer at The Doan Law Firm looks beyond the police report to answer those questions and identify every party whose insurance may apply.

The Doan Law Firm Accident & Injury Attorneys - Midland | 4500 W Illinois Ave #203, Midland, TX 79703 | (432) 653-0000

The firm's Midland office knows oilfield work from more than one angle. It handles oil field and oil rig incidents and workplace injuries alongside car and commercial truck crashes, so the overlap between a job site and a highway is familiar ground. Firm-wide, The Doan Law Firm states it has recovered over $1 billion for clients as of 2022, including one of the largest workplace injury settlements in US history, at over $100 million. Those are firm results, not predictions for any single case, but they show the resources behind the local team. Your claim may cover medical bills, future care, lost wages and lost earning capacity, which matters when an injury keeps you out of physical work for good. If a company pickup or oilfield truck hit you near Midland, Odessa, Stanton, Andrews or out in Martin County, call (432) 653-0000. The office on accident law firm Midland West Illinois Avenue answers 24 hours a day, 7 days a week, and the Midland/Odessa team can meet you by online appointment if the drive is long. Your consultation is free, and you pay $0 unless the firm wins your case.

The Doan Law Firm Accident & Injury Attorneys - Midland Address: 4500 W Illinois Ave #203, Midland, TX 79703 Phone: (432) 653-0000 FAQ About Midland Car Accident Lawyer Is it worth hiring an attorney for a car accident in Midland? If you were hurt, missed work or the other driver's insurer is disputing fault, a lawyer usually pays for themselves. The Doan Law Firm offers free consultations at its West Illinois Avenue office, so you can find out whether your Midland crash needs legal help before you commit to anything. For a small bumper scrape with no injuries, you may not need one at all, and the team will tell you so. What percentage do accident attorneys usually take? Most car accident lawyers work on contingency, meaning the fee is a percentage of what they recover and nothing if they lose. The Doan Law Firm handles Midland car accident cases this way, with no upfront cost and no fee unless the firm wins. The exact percentage is set out in writing in your fee agreement before any work begins. How much of a $25,000 settlement will I actually receive? Your share depends on the agreed contingency fee, any case expenses and what is owed to medical providers or health insurers who paid for your treatment. A good lawyer will often negotiate those medical balances down, which can put more money in your pocket. Call (432) 653-0000 and the Midland team can walk you through how the numbers would work in your situation. How long do you have to call a lawyer after a car accident in Texas? Texas gives you two years from the crash to file most injury lawsuits, but waiting that long is risky. Camera footage from businesses along Loop 250 or Wadley Avenue can be erased within days, and witness memories fade fast. The Doan Law Firm answers its Midland line 24 hours a day, so it makes sense to call once your immediate medical needs are handled. Do insurance companies want you to get a lawyer? Generally not. Adjusters often push for quick settlements before you speak to anyone, because an unrepresented claim usually costs them less. Once The Doan Law Firm is involved, insurers deal with the firm directly instead of calling you. Founder Jimmy Doan was named to the Top 25 Motor Vehicle Trial Lawyers in 2026, and insurers know which firms are prepared to go to court. What should you not tell your insurance company after a crash? Avoid apologizing, guessing about speed or distances, or saying you feel fine before a doctor has checked you. Anything you say in a recorded statement can be used to argue you share the blame, which matters under Texas rules that cut your recovery by your percentage of fault. The Doan Law Firm can handle those calls for you from the start. What is the biggest mistake people make with a car accident claim? Delaying medical treatment is one of the most costly. Gaps between the crash and your first doctor visit give insurers room to argue your injuries came from something else. Whether you go to Midland Memorial Hospital or an urgent care clinic, get checked quickly. Midland clients of The Doan Law Firm say the team helped them arrange treatment within about a week. How much can you get for pain and suffering in Texas? There is no fixed formula or cap in ordinary Texas car accident cases. The amount depends on how serious your injuries are, how long recovery takes and how the crash changed your daily life. The Doan Law Firm documents both economic losses and non-economic harm, such as pain, mental anguish and physical impairment, before negotiating with insurers. What is the hardest injury to prove after a car accident? Injuries that don't show up on an X-ray, like whiplash, soft tissue damage, mild traumatic brain injury and post-crash anxiety, are often the hardest to prove. Consistent treatment records, doctor notes and a daily pain journal help. The Midland team investigates beyond the police report to build evidence that insurers can't easily dismiss. Can I get compensation for anxiety after a car accident? Yes, Texas law allows recovery for mental anguish when it is tied to the crash and properly documented. Fear of driving, trouble sleeping and panic attacks after a wreck on I-20 or SH 191 are real harms. The Doan Law Firm can connect clients with trusted medical professionals so these effects are recorded and valued fairly. How likely is it to get sued after a car accident in Midland? Most crash claims settle through insurance without anyone being personally sued, especially when the at-fault driver carries at least the Texas minimum of 30/60/25 coverage. Lawsuits become more likely when injuries are serious and exceed the policy limits. If you have received a demand letter or lawsuit, call The Doan Law Firm at (432) 653-0000 to talk through your options. When should you contact a Midland car accident lawyer? Ideally before you speak with the other driver's insurance adjuster or sign anything. Early contact lets the firm preserve evidence, request the Texas CR-3 crash report and handle insurer calls from day one. The Doan Law Firm's office at 4500 W Illinois Ave #203 is open around the clock, and the first consultation is always free.
