

What is a party wall dispute?

Your neighbour has fourteen days to respond to your notice. If your neighbour responds and dissents, then under the Party Wall Act a dispute is deemed to have arisen and a surveyor or surveyors need to be appointed to resolve the dispute by means of Award. At this point your neighbour has the option to either appoint a surveyor of their choosing to represent them or agree on a joint surveyor to represent you both.

If a response to notice is not received within fourteen days, then a dissent is automatically deemed to have occurred, in this scenario you will be required to appoint a surveyor on your neighbours behalf and not able to appoint a joint 'agreed surveyor'.

Once appointed, the Party Wall Surveyor(s) role becomes that of Statutory Duty, and they must act impartially to resolve matters.

The surveyor(s) will draft and agree on the content of the Award, taking into consideration amongst other any safeguarding measures that may be required to minimise the likelihood of damage to the neighbouring premises.

The Award normally includes a survey of the adjoining owners' property prior to commencement of work.

Under normal circumstances as the building owner is benefiting from the work, they will be liable for all reasonable fees. Where work is undertaken at the request of a neighbour then the cost relating to this can be apportioned accordingly.
